G.O.Ms.No.1319 Dated the 30th Septr. 1957
Read the following:

From the Accountant-General, Madras, T.M.7-23/53-54/317. dated the 19th August 1953.

ORDER:

The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India, has decided for the sake of uniformity in State Accounts that the entire "Development" expenditure under a Major head of account should be exhibited under a single Minor head namely, "Development Schemes" to be newly opened under each Major Head and that the expenditure relating to schemes in the Five Year Plan should be shown separately under this Minor Head. The Government accordingly direct that the existing group-heads and sub-heads with the nomenclature "Post-War Reconstruction" and "Excluding Post-War Reconstruction" should be omitted from the Detailed Budget Estimates of Expenditure and that the expenditure on the schemes in the Five Year Plan and that on other Post-War Reconstruction Schemes should both be shown under the new Minor Head "Development Schemes" to be opened under each Major head. The expenditure relating to the schemes in the Five Year Plan will be shown under a separate sub-minor head "Five Year Plan Schemes" which should be opened under the above minor head and the expenditure on other post-war reconstruction schemes exhibited under another sub-minor head "Other Development Schemes", which will be opened under the same minor head. Consequently the existing minor heads under a major head will appear as group sub-heads under each of the above sub-minor heads. There will be no change in the existing arrangement of the sub-heads and detailed head thereunder to be shown under each group sub-head.

2. The revised classification will be given effect to from the Accounts of October 1953 and onwards.

3. Officers of the Government who draw bills for expenditure against the allotments sanctioned for Development Schemes should have the words "Development Schemes" prominently marked in red ink on the top right-hand corner of the bills, vouchers, etc., The head of debit in accordance with the revised classification prescribed in paragraph 1 above, should also be indicated clearly on the bills in the place allotted for it.
